

City News Service Budget of Activities

Thursday, March 19, 2015

10 a.m. LOS ANGELES - County Supervisor Hilda Solis and City Councilman Jose Huizar will join residents to celebrate the grand opening of the Sol y Luna Apartments, a 53-unit housing development for low-income families in Boyle Heights. The energy efficient apartment complex will offer residents classes in English, parenting, nutrition and health, personal finances and homebuying, as well as after-school tutoring. 2917 East First St. Contact: Elisa Vasquez, CDC, (626) 586-1762 or elisa.vasquez@lacdc.org.

12:15 p.m. INGLEWOOD - County Supervisor Mark Ridley-Thomas will help celebrate the naming of the Honorable John V. Meigs Jury Assembly Room at the Inglewood Courthouse. 1 Regent St. Contact: courthouse, (310) 419-5132.

1 p.m. LANCASTER - The Los Angeles County Air Show will hold a media day, with opportunities for scheduled media rides and plane-side interviews. The U.S. Air Force Thunderbirds will arrive at about 1 p.m.; interviews will occur at about 2:15 p.m. The air show will be held Saturday and Sunday. Note: Schedule with contact for plane-side interviews. General William J. Fox Airfield, 4555 W. Avenue G. Contact: Karen Strong, (916) 671-0334.

++7 p.m. LOS ANGELES - The Peace Officers Association of Los Angeles County will hold an event recognizing outstanding achievements by law enforcement, agencies and individuals. The winners of its 2015 Centurion Awards for Excellence will be announced and the President's Award will be presented to the investigative auditors unit from the District Attorney's Office. Judge David Wesley will be given a Joe Rosen Lifetime Achievement Award. USC Town and Gown Ballroom, 665 Exposition Blvd. Contact: (323) 267-4800.